

CAT QUIZ

True/False:

1. If a cat is rubbing against the cage door and purring, they are inviting you to play. It is OK to poke your finger into the cage to interact with them True _____ False _____
2. If you have cats at home, you know enough about cats to work with any shelter cat. They are the same, after all True _____ False _____
3. The staff at PCHS are always willing to answer questions, but they have many duties and need to stay focused on their work. True _____ False _____
4. Giving shelter cats a treat is a nice way to bond with them. True _____ False _____

Multiple Choice:

1. If an adoption counselor is showing a cat to a potential adopter, you should
 - a. Try to help by talking about all the good things you know about the cat and PCHS
 - b. Tell the people stories about your cat experiences
 - c. Leave the room and allow the adoption counselor time to work with the people
2. A sign posted on a cat's cage may tell you
 - a. If the cat is on vet hold, or special information about behavior
 - b. If the cat has had a food change
 - c. If the cat has a pending adoption
 - d. All of the above
3. Ringworm is
 - a. A fungal infection that can be passed on to humans
 - b. Visible on cats due to fur loss in the infected area
 - c. Transmitted by spores so exposed volunteers should be careful to wash exposed skin and change clothing to avoid spreading in the shelter or at home
 - d. All of the above
4. A cat you are holding starts to struggle to get away. You should
 - a. Hold on tight so they don't jump and hurt themselves
 - b. Set them down quickly, but gently
 - c. Try to calm them by humming a soothing song